*"We don't just build structures,
we imagine places where families
can live and share and dream."*

BRIAN RODROCK
PRESIDENT, RODROCK HOMES

Building a home from the ground up is about more than walls, doors and a roof. It's about creating a place where families and memories live and flourish. Where each day brings a fresh beginning and a new opportunity to say, "There really is no place like home."

CUSTOM HOME DIVISION

Rodrock Homes builds handcrafted, distinctive homes that reflect a carefully conceived vision brought to life. Homes characterized by uncommon quality and thoughtful details. Homes that are a retreat at day's end and a welcoming place to gather family and friends for fun and celebration.

The Rodrock Homes Custom Experience is about building a one-of-a-kind home to enhance your lifestyle. A handpicked team of professionals, representing Kansas City's best, is assembled for each buyer, including a project manager, builder liaison and designer. A talented, creative collaborative that turns dreams into reality.

Attention to detail and a commitment to high standards is just the beginning of the Rodrock Homes Custom Experience. There's a passion to make each client's experience extraordinarily unique and personal—a concierge approach to homebuilding that is intentional and built on a foundation of experience and a dedication to excellence.
